Elaboration

The evidence includes a CNN article discussing an investigation into UNRWA and an Instagram profile of UNRWA USA National Committee. Neither of these sources supports the claim that UNRWA placed a black band over its profile photo in mourning for the death of Yahya Sinwar.

The provided evidence does not contain any information about the UNRWA X profile or its activities. Therefore, the claim cannot be verified.

Evidence

Evidence from `image_search`

The Canadian Press News article discusses the claim that UNRWA placed a black band on its social media profiles in mourning for the death of Yahya Sinwar. The article includes an image of the UNRWA logo.

The DW article fact-checks a claim about UNRWA and includes a screenshot of an UNRWA X post from October 22, 2023, which does not show a black band.

The UNESCO source does not contain any relevant content.

Elaboration

The evidence includes a DW article that fact-checks a claim about UNRWA. The article includes a screenshot of an UNRWA X post from October 22, 2023, which does not show a black band. This contradicts the claim that UNRWA placed a black band on its profile photo.

Final Judgement

The initial search did not provide any information to support the claim. The subsequent search revealed a DW article that fact-checked a claim about UNRWA and included a screenshot of an UNRWA X post from October 22, 2023, which did not show a black band. This contradicts the claim. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. A search for the UNRWA X profile did not show a black band on the profile photo. A DW article fact-checking a related claim included a screenshot of an UNRWA X post from October 22, 2023, which did not show a black band, contradicting the claim.
