Elaboration

The evidence confirms that the IMF published the World Economic Outlook in October 2024, which discussed the Russian economy. The Moscow Times reported that the IMF boosted its 2024 growth forecast for Russia. However, the provided evidence does not explicitly state that the IMF declared Russia the fourth-largest economy in the world.

The evidence mentions the IMF's growth forecast for Russia but does not provide any information about the country's ranking in terms of economic size.

Therefore, the claim cannot be verified with the available information.
