The image

Elaboration

The claim states that the image shows the "French" Left rioting against Le Pen's victory in the first round of the French parliamentary elections in 2024. The evidence suggests that the image is likely from France. The web search reveals that there were protests in France against the National Rally after their victory in the European Parliament election on June 9, 2024, and after the first round of the 2024 legislative election. The Wikipedia article mentions that some protesters carried Palestinian flags. Therefore, the claim is likely accurate.

Final Judgement

The image is likely from a protest in France. The web search confirms that there were protests in France against the National Rally after their victory in the European Parliament election on June 9, 2024, and after the first round of the 2024 legislative election. The Wikipedia article mentions that some protesters carried Palestinian flags. Therefore, the claim is likely accurate. `true`

Verdict: TRUE

Justification

The image likely depicts a protest in France, as indicated by the geolocation and the presence of Palestinian flags, which aligns with the 2024 French protests against the National Rally following their victory in the European Parliament election, as reported by Wikipedia.
