Evidence

Evidence from `web_search`

On October 19, 2024, a drone attack targeted the residence of Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu in Caesarea, Israel. The attack, attributed to Hezbollah, hit a bedroom window but caused no injuries because Netanyahu and his wife were not present. The Times of Israel article mentions that Netanyahu described the attack as an assassination attempt.

The NBC News live blog also reported the drone strike on Netanyahu's house in Caesarea, launched from Lebanon. The article also mentions that two people were killed in an Israeli strike in northern Lebanon on the same day.

Evidence from `web_search`

On October 19, 2024, a drone attack targeted Benjamin Netanyahu's private residence in Caesarea, Israel, according to reports from the BBC (<https://www.bbc.com/news/articles/cwyl4e7w2e7o>) and NBC News (<https://www.nbcnews.com/news/world/drone-strike-launched-lebanon-netanyahus-house-no-casualties-reported-rcna176215>). Both articles state that Netanyahu and his wife were not present during the attack and that there were no injuries.

The BBC article mentions that Hezbollah was allegedly behind the attack.

Netanyahu blamed Hezbollah for the attack.

NBC News reports that

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that a drone attack targeted Benjamin Netanyahu's residence in Caesarea, Israel, on October 19, 2024. However, the evidence does not mention anything about Yair Netanyahu being killed in the attack. The reports explicitly state that Netanyahu and his wife were not present and that there were no injuries.

Therefore, the claim that Yair Netanyahu was killed in the drone attack is not supported by the provided evidence.

The claim is false.

Final Judgement

The search results confirm a drone attack on Netanyahu's residence on October 19, 2024, but make no mention of Yair Netanyahu being killed. The reports state that Netanyahu and his wife were not present and that there were no injuries.

The claim is demonstrably false because the provided evidence contradicts the assertion that Yair Netanyahu was killed in the drone attack. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. While a drone attack did target Benjamin Netanyahu's residence in Caesarea on October 19, 2024, as reported by the BBC and NBC News, there were no injuries, and the reports do not mention Yair Netanyahu being killed.
