Evidence

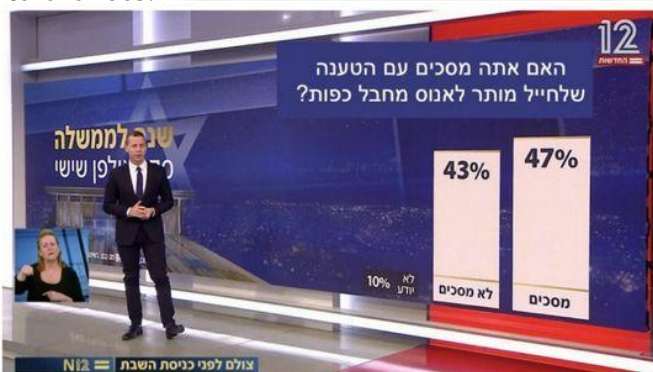

Evidence from web_search

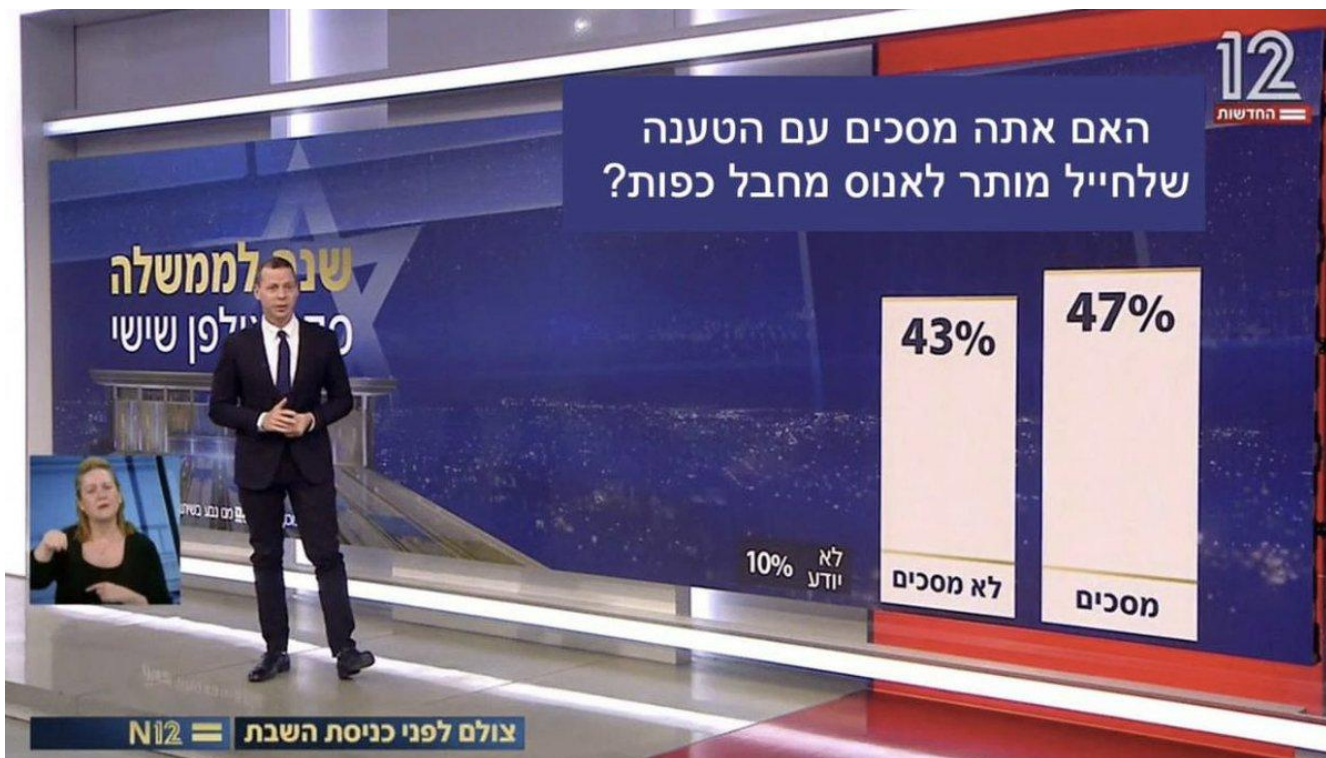

The image in the claim is a doctored screenshot of a poll. The original footage was published by Channel 12 on May 27, 2022. The altered image, which was shared on Facebook on August 11, asked if a soldier is allowed to rape a Palestinian. Channel 12 did not broadcast the purported poll and debunked the false posts in Hebrew on August 9.

The original poll was a 2022 Channel 12 poll. Another article discusses a poll indicating that 65% of Jewish Israelis oppose criminal prosecution for soldiers suspected of raping Palestinian detainees. The article mentions a related poll from Channel 12.

Elaboration

The claim is false. The image is a doctored screenshot of a poll. The original footage was published by Channel 12 on May 27, 2022. The altered image, which was shared on Facebook on August 11, asked if a soldier is allowed to rape a Palestinian. Channel 12 did not broadcast the purported poll and debunked the false posts in Hebrew on August 9.

Final Judgement

The image is a doctored screenshot of a poll. The original footage was published by Channel 12 on May 27, 2022. The altered image, which was shared on Facebook on August 11, asked if a soldier is allowed to rape a Palestinian. Channel 12 did not broadcast the purported poll and debunked the false posts in Hebrew on August 9. Therefore, the claim is not factually accurate.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The image is a manipulated screenshot of a poll. The original footage was from Channel 12, but the question about soldier rape was fabricated and debunked by Channel 12 on August 9, 2024.
