

Claim

Claim: "

This image shows Jet Blue Airlines' in-flight map where Israel's borders were inaccurate and the area was shown under the label 'Palestinian Territories'. The incident occurred in September 2024."

Actions

```
web_search("JetBlue in-flight map Israel Palestinian Territories")
image_search("JetBlue in-flight map Israel Palestinian Territories")
```

Evidence

Evidence from web_search

In September 2024, JetBlue Airways changed Israel's borders and labeled the area as "Palestinian Territories" on its in-flight map, as reported by The Jerusalem Post (<https://www.jpost.com/diaspora/article-818656>). The Golan Heights was also removed from Israel's borders.

The Times of Israel (https://www.timesofisrael.com/liveblog_entry/air-canada-blames-display-issue-after-in-flight-map-of-israel-reabeled-as-palestinian-territories/) also reported on the incident. JetBlue stated that the map was provided by a third-party company. Paddleyourownkanoo.com (<https://www.paddleyourownkanoo.com/2024/09/09/jetblue-forced-to-change-inflight-maps-after-palestinian-territories-controversy/>) also discussed the controversy, noting that JetBlue was forced to change its maps and switch map vendors.

Evidence from image_search

From Source: Content: The search result from Ynetnews.com shows an image of an in-flight map where Israel is labeled as "Palestinian Territories".

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that in September 2024, JetBlue's in-flight map inaccurately depicted Israel's borders and labeled the area as "Palestinian Territories." The Golan Heights was also removed from Israel's borders. The incident was reported by multiple news sources, including The Jerusalem Post and The Times of Israel. JetBlue attributed the error to a third-party map provider and subsequently changed its maps.

Final Judgement

The claim is accurate. Multiple reliable sources confirm that JetBlue's in-flight map in September 2024 mislabeled Israel as "Palestinian Territories."

true

Verdict: TRUE

Justification

In September 2024, JetBlue Airways' in-flight map inaccurately labeled Israel as "Palestinian Territories," as reported by sources like The Jerusalem Post (<https://www.jpost.com/diaspora/article-818656>) and The Times of Israel (https://www.timesofisrael.com/liveblog_entry/air-canada-blames-display-issue-after-in-flight-map-of-israel-relabeled-as-palestinian-territories/). The Golan Heights was also removed from Israel's borders. JetBlue stated the map was provided by a third party and later changed its maps.