Evidence

Evidence from `web_search`

The International Court of Justice (ICJ) published a summary of its advisory opinion on July 19, 2024, regarding the legal consequences of Israel's policies and practices in the Occupied Palestinian Territory, finding Israel's continued presence unlawful. The ICJ stated that Israel must end its unlawful presence, cease settlement activities, and make reparations. All states and international organizations are obligated not to recognize the situation arising from Israel's unlawful presence. (<https://www.icj-cij.org/node/204176>)

The UN Secretary-General presented a report on the advisory opinion on December 19, 2024. The UN website provides links to the report in multiple languages. (<https://www.un.org/unispal/document/report-of-the-secretary-general-icj-19dec24/>) The Global Centre for the Responsibility to Protect published an article on April 21, 2025, discussing the ICJ's July 2024 Advisory Opinion, which stated that Israel's presence in the occupied Palestinian territory is unlawful.

Elaboration

The International Court of Justice (ICJ) issued an advisory opinion in July 2024 regarding Israel's policies in the Occupied Palestinian Territory. The ICJ found Israel's continued presence unlawful and stated that Israel must end its unlawful presence. The ICJ did not declare Israel an illegal state, but rather found its presence in the Occupied Palestinian Territory unlawful.

Final Judgement

The International Court of Justice (ICJ) did not declare Israel an illegal state in July 2024. Instead, the ICJ found Israel's continued presence in the Occupied Palestinian Territory unlawful.

The claim is not factually accurate because it misrepresents the ICJ's ruling. The ICJ did not declare Israel an illegal state, but rather found its presence in the Occupied Palestinian Territory unlawful. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The International Court of Justice (ICJ) issued an advisory opinion in July 2024, finding Israel's continued presence in the Occupied Palestinian Territory unlawful, and stating that Israel must end its unlawful presence, cease settlement activities, and make reparations (<https://www.icj-cij.org/node/204176>). However, the ICJ did not declare Israel an illegal state.
