The Ukrainian Center has been creating fakes, comment bots and artificially increasing views since 2022

By Aubrie Spady · Fox News

The article from gwaramedia.com debunks a claim that Fox News published an article stating that the "Psychological and Information Warfare Center of Ukraine" received $140,000,000 per month from USAID. The article states that the article was not published by Fox News. The DW article (dw.com) fact-checks a claim that Fox News reported USAID pays $140 million per month to Ukraine's Psychological and Information Warfare Center and states that a manipulated screenshot of a Fox News article is circulating on social media. The Wikipedia article (en.wikipedia.org) discusses the 72nd Psychological and Information Warfare Center, a unit of the Ukrainian Special Operations Forces.

Elaboration

The claim is not entirely accurate. While the image appears to be a screenshot of a Fox News article, fact-checking articles from gwaramedia.com and dw.com indicate that the article is a manipulated screenshot. The article's content, which alleges that the "Psychological and Information Warfare Center of Ukraine" received $140,000,000 per month from USAID, is circulating as disinformation.

Final Judgement

The claim is that the image shows an authentic Fox News article. However, fact-checking articles debunk the claim, stating that the image is a manipulated screenshot. Therefore, the claim is false. false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. While the image appears to be a Fox News article, it is a manipulated screenshot. Fact-checking articles from gwaramedia.com and dw.com debunk the claim, stating that the article is a manipulated screenshot.
