

Claim

Claim: "An Algerian judo athlete withdrew from his Olympics 2024 match against an Israeli opponent."

Actions

`image_search("Algerian judo athlete withdraws Olympics 2024 Israeli opp`

Evidence

Evidence from `image_search`

The BBC Sport website contains an image of a judo athlete (

). The Guardian reports that an Algerian judoka, Dris M.R., was investigated after failing to make weight for a bout with Israeli judoka Butbul To (

).

- <https://www.bbc.com/sport/olympics/articles/cp68x1xp05eo>
- <https://www.theguardian.com/sport/article/2024/jul/29/algerian-judoka-investigated-after-failing-to-make-weight-for-bout-with-israeli>
- <https://www.france24.com/en/sport/20240729-algerian-judoka-disqualified-ahead-of-olympic-fight-against-israeli-opponent>

Elaboration

The evidence indicates that an Algerian judoka, Dris M.R., was investigated after failing to make weight for a match against Israeli judoka Butbul To. The France24 article states that the Algerian judoka was disqualified.

Based on the evidence, the claim is likely true.

Final Judgement

The search results confirm that an Algerian judoka, Dris M.R., was disqualified from a match against an Israeli opponent, Butbul To, at the Olympics. This aligns with the claim that an Algerian judo athlete withdrew from a match against an Israeli opponent.

true

Verdict: TRUE

Justification

An Algerian judoka, Dris M.R., was disqualified from a match against Israeli judoka Butbul To at the Olympics, as reported by sources like the Guardian and France24.