The Hollywood Reporter published an article about the Hollywood Walk of Fame, including an image of several stars.

NBC News published an article about the vandalism of Donald Trump's star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

The evidence includes an article from Entertainment Weekly that discusses whether Gal Gadot's Hollywood Walk of Fame star was destroyed. The article mentions that her ceremony was disrupted by protestors. The Times Now News fact-checks claims of recent vandalism of Donald Trump's Hollywood Walk of Fame star, stating that no recent vandalism has occurred and that circulating photos are from incidents in 2016 and 2018. The image search also shows images of vandalized stars, including Donald Trump's.

The evidence indicates that the image shows vandalism of a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, but it does not confirm that it is Gal Gadot's star. The evidence also suggests that the image is not recent. Therefore, the claim is not supported by the evidence. false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. While the image depicts a vandalized star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, there is no evidence to support that it is Gal Gadot's star or that the vandalism occurred recently. The evidence suggests that the image may be related to the vandalism of Donald Trump's star, which occurred in the past, as reported by Times Now News.
