Elaboration

The evidence confirms that the World Jewish Congress is involved with the IHRA working definition of antisemitism. However, the evidence does not contain any information about the claim that the IHRA definition was amended in March 2025 to include "Conflating the assassination of JFK to jews/israel".

Therefore, the claim cannot be verified with the provided evidence.

NCJW supports the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) definition in full as a unified definition across countries and organizations, to be used as an educational tool only. We do not recommend this be codified into law or used to prohibit freedom of speech in any way.

About the IHRA working definition of antisemitism

The IHRA is the only intergovernmental organization mandated to focus solely on Holocaust-related issues, so with evidence that the scourge of antisemitism is once again on the rise, we resolved to take a leading role in combatting it. IHRA experts determined that in order to begin to address the problem of antisemitism, there must be clarity about what antisemitism is.

The IHRA's Committee on Antisemitism and Holocaust Denial worked to build international consensus around a non-legally binding working definition of antisemitism, which was subsequently adopted by the Plenary. By doing so, the IHRA set an example of responsible conduct for other international fora and provided an important tool with practical applicability for its Member Countries. This is just one illustration of how the IHRA has equipped policymakers to address this rise in hate and discrimination at their national level.

The working definition of antisemitism

In the spirit of the Stockholm Declaration that states: "With humanity still scarred by ...antisemitism and xenophobia the international community shares a solemn responsibility to fight those evils" the committee on Antisemitism and Holocaust Denial called the IHRA Plenary in Budapest 2015 to adopt the following working definition of antisemitism.

On 26 May 2016, the Plenary in Bucharest decided to:

Adopt the following non-legally binding working definition of antisemitism:

"Antisemitism is a certain perception of Jews, which may be expressed as hatred toward Jews. Rhetorical and physical manifestations of antisemitism are directed toward Jewish or non-Jewish individuals and/or their property, toward Jewish community institutions and religious facilities."

To guide IHRA in its work, the following examples may serve as illustrations:

Manifestations might include the targeting of the state of Israel, conceived as a Jewish

Elaboration

The new evidence reiterates the IHRA definition's adoption date (May 26, 2016) and support from organizations like the National Council of Jewish Women. However, it still lacks any information about the claim that the IHRA definition was amended in March 2025 to include "Conflating the assassination of JFK to jews/israel".

Therefore, the claim remains unverified.

Final Judgement

The World Jewish Congress is associated with the IHRA working definition of antisemitism, which was adopted in 2016. However, there is no evidence to support the claim that the definition was amended in March 2025 to include "Conflating the assassination of JFK to jews/israel."

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The provided evidence confirms the World Jewish Congress's involvement with the IHRA working definition of antisemitism, which was adopted in 2016. However, the search results do not contain any information to support the claim that the IHRA definition was amended in March 2025 to include "Conflating the assassination of JFK to jews/israel." Therefore, the claim is unverified.
