Elaboration

The evidence confirms that Annalena Baerbock was active in February 2025 and commented on Trump's remarks regarding Zelenskyy and Ukraine. Specifically, one source states that Germany criticized Trump for calling Zelenskyy a dictator (Source). However, the evidence does not explicitly state that Baerbock threatened to sever ties with the US.

Therefore, the claim is partially supported, but the specific assertion about severing ties requires further verification.

Final Judgement

The search results confirm that Annalena Baerbock was active in February 2025 and commented on Trump's remarks regarding Zelenskyy and Ukraine. However, the evidence does not explicitly state that Baerbock threatened to sever ties with the US.

The claim is not entirely supported by the evidence. While Baerbock did comment on Trump's remarks, there is no evidence to support the claim that she threatened to sever ties with the US. Therefore, the claim is considered false. `false`

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is not supported by the evidence. While Annalena Baerbock did comment on Donald Trump's remarks regarding Zelenskyy and Ukraine in February 2025, as evidenced by sources like Reuters and PL English, there is no evidence to support the assertion that she threatened to sever ties with the US.
