

Claim

Claim: "Commander of the Israeli Air Force, Major General Tomer Bar has been killed by Hezbollah in Tel Aviv in a drone attack in November 2024."

Actions

```
web_search("Tomer Bar killed Hezbollah drone attack")
web_search("Israeli Air Force Commander Tomer Bar")
```

Evidence

Evidence from web_search

The claim that Tomer Bar was killed by Hezbollah is false, according to a fact-check from aol.com. The article states there is no evidence to support the claim, and no media outlets have reported his death. Inshorts also reports that Tomer Bar is alive and was not killed by Hezbollah, citing Reuters as the source (inshorts.com).

However, presstv.ir reports that Hezbollah claimed to have attacked Tomer Bar's residence in Tel Aviv with drones on November 18, 2024 image:k.

Evidence from web_search

The search results include a Wikipedia article about Tomer Bar, the current Commander of the Israeli Air Force, who assumed office on April 4, 2022, and was last retrieved on October 2, 2024. image:k The Jerusalem Post (<https://www.jpost.com/tags/tomer-bar>) and The Times of Israel (<https://www.timesofisrael.com/topic/tomer-bar/>) have published articles mentioning Tomer Bar, with some articles from 2024 and 2025.

غزة - فلسطين

, image:k

Elaboration

The claim is false. Fact-checks from aol.com and inshorts.com state that there is no evidence to support the claim and that Tomer Bar is alive.

However, presstv.ir reports that Hezbollah claimed to have attacked Tomer Bar's residence in Tel Aviv with drones on November 18, 2024.

Final Judgement

The claim that Tomer Bar was killed by Hezbollah is demonstrably false. Multiple sources confirm that he is alive, and there are no reports of his death. While there are reports of an attack on his residence, the claim of his death is not supported by evidence. false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim that Tomer Bar was killed by Hezbollah is false. Fact-checks from aol.com and inshorts.com confirm that he is alive.