Evidence

Evidence from web_search

The University at Buffalo published an article about a Reuters fact-check article addressing a fake photo of Mike Tyson with a Palestinian flag (<https://engineering.buffalo.edu/computer-science-engineering/news-and-events/news.host.html/content/shared/engineering/home/articles/media-mentions/2024-media-coverage/fact-check--mike-tyson-did-not-pose-with-palestinian-flag-ahead-.detail.html>).

The New Arab published an article stating that the image of Mike Tyson with the Palestinian flag is an AI-generated "deepfake" (<https://www.newarab.com/news/mike-tyson-palestinian-flag-image-exposed-ai-deepfake>). The article mentions that Tyson has never publicly supported the Palestinian cause and that the image was analyzed by Newschecker and an AI detection tool, both of which found evidence of manipulation.

Evidence from image_search

From Source: Content: The search result from RTVE.es shows an image of Mike Tyson with the Palestinian flag, but it is labeled as "FAKE".

Elaboration

The evidence indicates that the image of Mike Tyson with the Palestinian flag is not authentic. Multiple sources, including a Reuters fact-check article and The New Arab, identify the image as an AI-generated "deepfake." The New Arab article also mentions that Tyson has not publicly supported the Palestinian cause. Additionally, an image search result from RTVE.es labels the image as "FAKE."

Final Judgement

The claim that the image is authentic is false. Multiple sources confirm the image is a manipulated "deepfake" and not a genuine photograph of Mike Tyson.

false
