on October 14, 2024. The attack on the Golani training base near Binyamina killed four soldiers and wounded 58 others (

The sources, including The Long War Journal, The Times of Israel and CNN, do not mention that Herzi Halevi was assassinated.

Elaboration

The evidence indicates that a Hezbollah drone attack occurred on an IDF base on October 13, 2024, resulting in casualties. However, the evidence explicitly states that Herzi Halevi visited the site of the attack on October 14, 2024, which contradicts the claim that he was assassinated in the attack. The sources do not mention Halevi's assassination.

Therefore, the claim is false.

Final Judgement

The evidence confirms that a Hezbollah drone attack occurred on an IDF base on October 13, 2024. However, the evidence also shows that Herzl Halevi visited the site of the attack the following day, which contradicts the claim that he was assassinated. The sources do not mention Halevi's assassination.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. While a Hezbollah drone attack did occur on an IDF base on October 13, 2024, resulting in casualties, the IDF Chief of Staff Herzl Halevi visited the site the following day, contradicting the claim that he was assassinated. The provided sources, including The Long War Journal, The Times of Israel and CNN, do not support the assassination claim.
