Evidence

Evidence from web_search

According to a search result from map.org.uk, published on October 30, 2024, Keir Starmer stated that Israel is exterminating Palestinians in Gaza. The article does not mention any boycott of diplomatic relations with Israel. (<https://www.map.org.uk/news/archive/post/1655-keir-starmer-you-cant-say-you-dont-know-that-israel-is-exterminating-palestinians-in-gaza>)

The Guardian published an article on October 6, 2024, discussing Keir Starmer's call for a ceasefire in Gaza. (<https://www.theguardian.com/politics/2024/oct/06/starmer-urges-unity-at-home-and-reiterates-call-for-ceasefire-in-middle-east>)

The BBC published an article on June 4, 2024, discussing the pressure on Keir Starmer to take stronger action against Israel regarding the situation in Gaza. (<https://www.bbc.com/news/articles/cwd7elz7490>)

Elaboration

The evidence does not support the claim. While Keir Starmer has commented on the situation in Gaza, including calling for a ceasefire and stating that Israel is exterminating Palestinians, none of the provided articles mention a boycott of diplomatic relations with Israel. Therefore, the claim is not supported by the evidence.

Final Judgement

The search results show that Keir Starmer has made statements about the situation in Gaza, including calling for a ceasefire and criticizing Israel's actions. However, none of the provided evidence mentions a boycott of diplomatic relations with Israel.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The available evidence, including articles from map.org.uk, The Guardian, and the BBC, indicates that Keir Starmer has commented on the conflict in Gaza, but does not support the claim that he announced a boycott of diplomatic relations with Israel.
