Elaboration

The evidence confirms that there were Israeli airstrikes in the Shejaeya neighborhood of Gaza City in April 2025. However, the evidence does not mention the baby Sham Imad Muhareb or whether she lost her arm in an airstrike.

Therefore, the claim cannot be verified due to a lack of information about the baby.

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that there were Israeli airstrikes in the Shejaeya neighborhood of Gaza City in April 2025. However, there is no information about the baby Sham Imad Muhareb or whether she lost her arm in an airstrike.

Therefore, the claim cannot be verified due to a lack of information about the baby.

Final Judgement

The provided evidence confirms that there were Israeli airstrikes in the Shejaeya neighborhood of Gaza City in April 2025. However, there is no information about the baby Sham Imad Muhareb or whether she lost her arm in an airstrike. Therefore, the claim cannot be verified due to a lack of information about the baby.

The most appropriate decision option is `false`.

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim cannot be verified. While there is evidence of Israeli airstrikes in the Shejaeya neighborhood of Gaza City in April 2025, as reported by Reuters, The Guardian, and the BBC, there is no information available to confirm or deny the baby Sham Imad Muhareb's injury.
