StopFake.org (Source) states that the claim is a fake, and that social media users misinterpreted a statement made by Benjamin Netanyahu at the White House on April 7, 2025. Netanyahu was comparing the situation of Gaza people to those in other war zones, including Ukraine and Syria, where people could leave the country. CNN (Source) reports that in August 2025, Netanyahu said that Israel is in talks with several countries about taking in Palestinians displaced by the war in Gaza, but does not mention Ukraine or Syria. The Times of Israel (Source) reports on a meeting at the White House where Ron Dermer stated that Israel does not want to permanently occupy the Gaza Strip or deport Gaza's residents.

!!! Палестинцев хотят переселить на Украину?

В ходе совместной пресс-конференции президента США и гостящего у него премьера Израиля Нетаньяху выяснилось, что Украина и Сирия — среди потенциальных мест переселения полутора миллионов жителей Газы.

Комментируя эту идею, Нетаньяху заявил, что нет ничего плохого в том, чтобы дать жителям Газы выбор, куда им уходить из заблокированного сектора — в Сирию или на Украину.

Пока украинцы бегут в Европу, запад решает куда поселить мигрантов с Палестины

Elaboration

The new evidence clarifies the situation. StopFake.org explicitly labels the claim as false, stating that the original statement was misinterpreted. Netanyahu did not announce plans to resettle Palestinians in Gaza to Ukraine and Syria. Instead, he compared the situation in Gaza to other war zones, including Ukraine and Syria, where people could leave the country. CNN reports that Israel was in talks with other countries about taking in displaced Palestinians, but not Ukraine or Syria.

Final Judgement

The claim is demonstrably false. The evidence shows that the claim misrepresents Netanyahu's statements. He did not announce plans to resettle Palestinians in Gaza to Ukraine and Syria. Instead, he compared the situation in Gaza to other war zones, including Ukraine and Syria, where people could leave the country.
