

Claim

Claim: "In November 2024 Russia sentenced a man to 14 years in prison for burning the Quran."

Actions

```
web_search("Russia man sentenced Quran burning November 2024")
```

Evidence

Evidence from `web_search`

In November 2024, Reuters reported that Nikita Zhuravel was sentenced to 14 years in prison for treason, with the court finding him guilty of online communication with a member of the Security Service of Ukraine. Zhuravel was already serving a sentence for burning a Quran (

). The Moscow Times also reported that Zhuravel received an additional 13 years and six months for treason, with a previous sentence of 3.5 years for burning the Quran, totaling 14 years (

Meduza reported on November 26, 2024, that Zhuravel received an additional 13.5 years in prison, resulting in a total of 14 years. He was arrested in May 2023 for burning a Quran and charged with collaborating with Ukraine's security services in October 2024.

- Source
- Source
- Source

Elaboration

The claim is accurate. In November 2024, Nikita Zhuravel was sentenced to 14 years in prison. This sentence was a result of a combination of charges, including treason, and a previous sentence for burning the Quran.

Final Judgement

The evidence confirms that in November 2024, a man named Nikita Zhuravel was sentenced to 14 years in prison. This sentence was related to both burning the Quran and treason charges.

true

Verdict: TRUE

Justification

In November 2024, Nikita Zhuravel was sentenced to 14 years in prison by a Russian court. This sentence was a result of a previous sentence for burning the Quran and an additional sentence for treason, as reported by sources such as Reuters and The Moscow Times.