

Claim

Claim: "A US-flagged vessel has been attacked in the Guld of Aden in July 2024. A Spokesperson at Denmark's shipping company Maersk said: "There was an attack targeted on one of the company's US-flagged vessels at the northernmost part of the Gulf of Aden."

Actions

`image_search("Maersk US-flagged vessel Gulf of Aden attack July 2024")`

Evidence

Evidence from `image_search`

The search results include an image of a Maersk Line vessel (

) and an image of a ship on fire with a Twitter post reporting a US-flagged ship targeted in the Gulf of Aden on July 9, 2024 (

Elaboration

The evidence suggests that a US-flagged ship was targeted in the Gulf of Aden. The image search results include a Twitter post from July 9, 2024, reporting such an attack. The image shows a ship on fire. However, the provided evidence does not include a statement from a Maersk spokesperson.

The claim is partially supported by the evidence, but the information about the Maersk spokesperson is missing.

Final Judgement

The evidence confirms that a US-flagged ship was targeted in the Gulf of Aden. However, the provided evidence does not include a statement from a Maersk spokesperson.

Since the claim includes information that is not supported by the evidence, the most appropriate decision option is false.

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is partially supported by the evidence. An image search revealed a Twitter post reporting an attack on a US-flagged ship in the Gulf of Aden on July 9, 2024, as shown in the search results (

). However, the evidence does not include a statement from a Maersk spokesperson, making the claim false.
