Evidence

Evidence from web_search

A fact-check from aol.com, published on December 12, 2024, states that the claim of Tomer Bar's death in a Hezbollah drone strike is false, with no evidence to support it.

The article also mentions that Bar is not listed among the military personnel killed since October 27.

Inshorts, citing Reuters, reported on December 9, 2024, that Israeli Air Force chief Tomer Bar is alive and was not killed in a November drone attack. The rumor emerged after a ceasefire announcement between Israel and Hezbollah. The hindrajabfoundation.org also mentions Tomer Bar, the Commander of the Israeli Air Force.

Evidence from web_search

Major General Tomer Bar is the current Commander of the Israeli Air Force, assuming office on April 4, 2022, according to his Wikipedia page (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tomer\_Bar). The Jerusalem Post (<https://www.jpost.com/tags/tomer-bar>) and The Times of Israel (<https://www.timesofisrael.com/topic/tomer-bar/>) have published articles mentioning Tomer Bar, including articles from 2024 and 2025. One article from The Times of Israel discusses a drone that hit a building in Yavne on December 10, 2024.

Elaboration

The claim is false. Multiple sources, including a fact-check from aol.com and reports from Inshorts and Reuters, confirm that Tomer Bar is alive and was not killed in a drone attack. The evidence also indicates that he is the current Commander of the Israeli Air Force.

Final Judgement

The claim that Major General Tomer Bar was killed in a drone attack is demonstrably false. Multiple sources, including fact-checks and news reports, confirm that he is alive and serving as the Commander of the Israeli Air Force.

false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim that Major General Tomer Bar was killed in a drone attack is false. Fact-checks from aol.com and reports from Inshorts, citing Reuters, confirm that Bar is alive.
