Evidence from `image_search`

The Institute for the Study of War (ISW) published a map showing the locations of IDF strikes around Tehran (

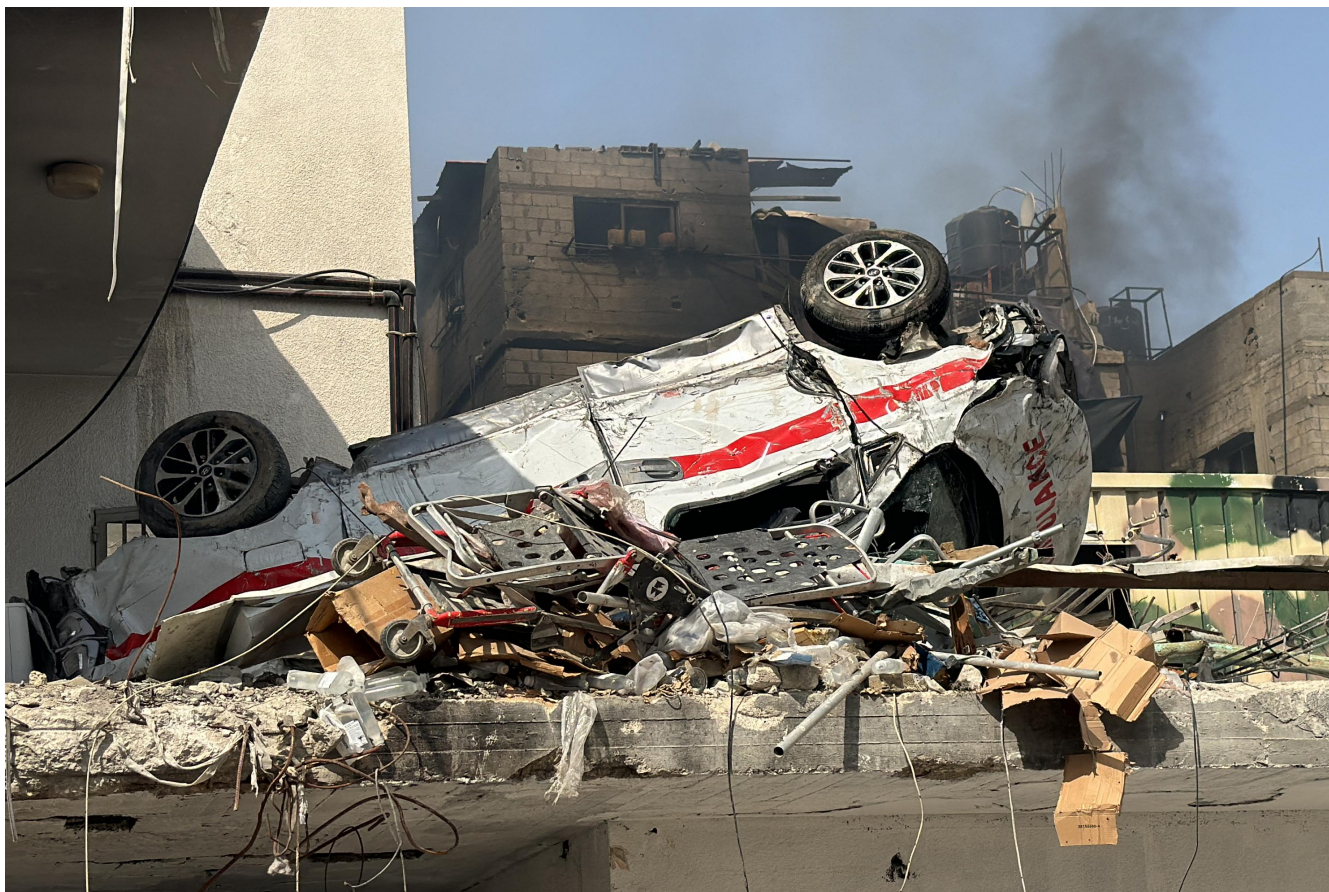

IDF Strikes around Tehran

). CNN published an article about Israeli strikes in Iran (

). Al Jazeera published an article about Israeli attacks on Iran on October 26, 2024 (

).

Elaboration

The evidence confirms that there were Israeli strikes in Iran on October 26, 2024. The Institute for the Study of War (ISW) published a map showing the locations of IDF strikes around Tehran. Al Jazeera also published an article about the attacks on the same date. However, the evidence does not provide any information about the specific image in the claim.

Therefore, it is impossible to verify the claim based on the provided evidence. More information is needed to confirm if the image depicts an Israeli missile attack on Iran on October 26, 2024.

Evidence

Evidence from geolocate

The most likely countries where the image was taken are: {'China': 0.42, 'Malaysia': 0.32, 'Taiwan': 0.13, 'Singapore': 0.03, 'Australia': 0.01, 'India': 0.01, 'Japan': 0.01, 'Ukraine': 0.01, 'Albania': 0.0, 'Andorra': 0.0}

Elaboration

The geolocation of the image suggests that it was most likely taken in China or Malaysia. This contradicts the claim that the image depicts an event in Iran.

Final Judgement

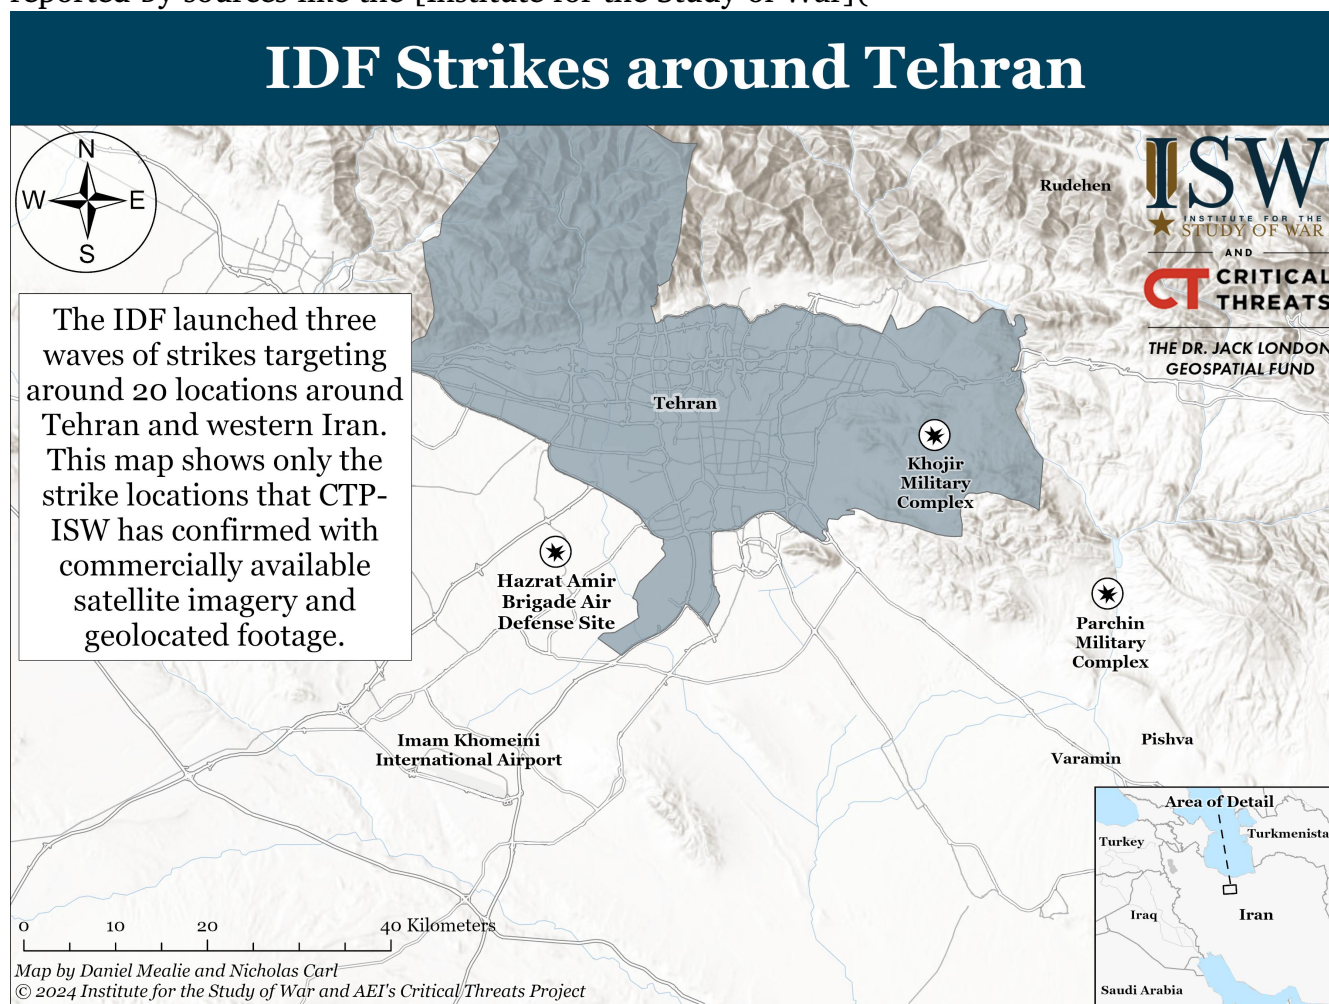

The evidence indicates that there were Israeli strikes in Iran on October 26, 2024. However, the geolocation of the image suggests that it was most likely taken in China or Malaysia, contradicting the claim.

false

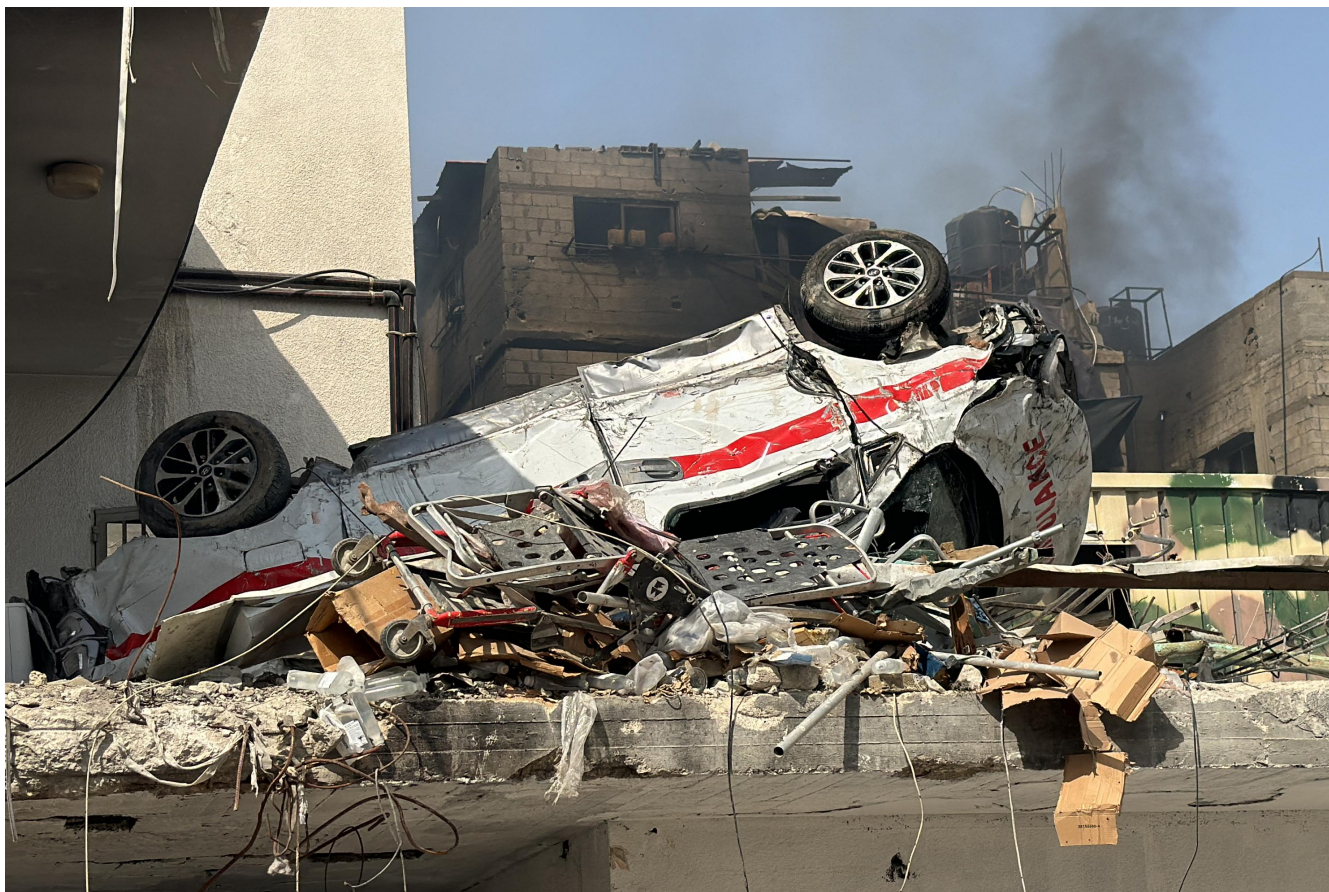

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim is false. While there were indeed Israeli strikes in Iran on October 26, 2024, as reported by sources like the [Institute for the Study of War](

) and [Al Jazeera](

), the image in question was likely taken in China or Malaysia, according to geolocation analysis.
