The 2025 London Summit on Ukraine, also known as the Securing Our Future London Summit, took place on March 2, 2025, in London, hosted by British Prime Minister Keir Starmer. The summit aimed to create a "coalition of the willing" to present a peace plan for the Russian invasion of Ukraine. Participants included 16 states, the EU, and NATO. The summit followed a meeting between Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and U.S. President Donald Trump. Starmer outlined a four-point plan and committed £1.6 billion for air defense missiles for Ukraine. The summit also involved discussions with leaders from Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania. - Le Monde: https://www.lemonde.fr/en/international/article/2025/03/02/zelensky-joins-european-leaders-at-key-ukraine-summit-in-london_6738729_4.html

- Al Jazeera: <https://www.aljazeera.com/news/2025/3/2/european-leaders-gather-in-london-to-strengthen-support-for-ukraine>

Elaboration

The image search results show multiple photos from the London summit on Ukraine on March 2, 2025, where European leaders are wearing suits. These images contradict the claim that European leaders took off their suits. Therefore, the claim is false.

Final Judgement

The initial search confirmed the existence of the London Summit on Ukraine on March 2, 2025, but did not provide any images of leaders removing their suits. Subsequent image searches for "European leaders London summit Ukraine suits off" revealed multiple photos from the summit, showing leaders wearing suits, thus contradicting the claim. false

Verdict: FALSE

Justification

The claim that European leaders took off their suits to support Ukraine at the London summit on March 2, 2025, is false. While the summit did occur, as confirmed by sources like Reuters, Le Monde, and Al Jazeera, images from the summit show leaders wearing suits, not removing them.
