The 2025 London Summit on Ukraine, held on March 2, 2025, was a meeting of international leaders in London, called by British Prime Minister Keir Starmer. The summit aimed to create a "coalition of the willing" in Europe to present a peace plan for the Russian invasion of Ukraine. Participants included leaders from 16 states, the EU, and NATO. The summit resulted in a four-point plan and commitments, including £1.6 billion in UK export finances for air defense missiles for Ukraine. The summit followed a meeting between Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and U.S. President Donald Trump.
